

A woman with dark hair is looking down at a tablet computer she is holding. The scene is dimly lit, with a strong blue color cast. In the background, there are out-of-focus lights, creating a bokeh effect. The overall mood is professional and focused.

TRANSGENDER ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT PROJECT

LEGAL SERVICES AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

INTRO:

If you're seeking economic support, the Center can help. The Center's Transgender Economic Empowerment Project (TEEP) offers a wide range of services to help gender-diverse people reach economic stability. We offer job readiness and career development services. We can also connect you with inclusive employers.

SERVICES FOR CLIENTS

- To address the disproportionate violence and discrimination faced by trans, non-binary, and intersex people, we provide:
 - Legal Services for community members who have faced discrimination in employment, housing, and medical care
 - Know Your Legal Rights workshops
 - Survivor Services for Victims of Crime
 - Assistance in obtaining a legal name and gender marker changes, and criminal record expungements
 - Immigration Legal Services
- In conjunction with providing these legal services, and to address barriers to successful legal outcomes, we provide:
 - Case management coordination and referrals to affirming and culturally responsive resources, including job training and placement services
 - Assistance with applications for educational opportunities and social services
 - Financial Literacy workshops
 - Homeless Outreach

SERVICES FOR BUSINESSES

To further systemic change at institutions that have the greatest impact on our clients, we provide training and ongoing technical assistance to a limited number of social service agencies, government institutions, and businesses. These workshops provide the necessary tools to create a safer and more inclusive environment.

GENDER AND SEXUAL DIVERSITY TRAININGS

Topics include:

- Best practices, with a focus on evolving local, state, and federal laws, and the changing cultural landscape for transgender, non-binary, and intersex people
- Gender & sexual diversity, pronouns, terminology, transition guidelines, and how to create a harassment-free environment
- Culturally-responsive entities are invited to attend Job and Resource Fairs we host throughout the year.
- The Transgender Youth Employment Toolkit is a resource to prepare transgender youth for the workforce. The toolkit is available in print and online at <http://lgbtcenter.org/social-service-and-housing/transgender/t2w>
