

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles County Ethics Commission

Background

In 2024, Los Angeles County voters passed Measure G, which requires the creation of an independent Ethics Commission and Office of Ethics Compliance to promote ethical, transparent, and accountable County government.

The Los Angeles County Ethics Commission is expected to serve as an independent ethics oversight body for the County. The Commission's role includes overseeing and enforcing laws related to campaign financing, lobbying, conflicts of interest, governmental ethics, and related matters; providing strategic oversight of the Office of Ethics Compliance; adopting rules, regulations, policies, complaint procedures, and penalty guidelines; issuing formal opinions; and adjudicating enforcement matters, including making final decisions following administrative hearings and imposing penalties where authorized.

The Office of Ethics Compliance will carry out the Commission's day-to-day work, which includes education and training, advice and guidance, public transparency and disclosure administration, investigations, audits, referrals to other enforcement agencies, and public reporting.

Ethics Commissioners may be asked to review sensitive or complex matters and must exercise independent judgment, fairness, impartiality, and discretion. Commissioners shall not act as representatives of any nominating authority, elected official, organization, or interest group.

The Commission will meet at least six times per calendar year, and meetings will be subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act. Commissioners will need to prepare for meetings, review materials, participate in hearings or other Commission activities, complete required trainings or disclosures, and comply with applicable ethics and service restrictions.

The time commitment is subject to change and may vary based on the Commission's meeting schedule, agenda items, enforcement matters, hearings, subcommittee meetings, preparation time, and other Commission business. Commissioners should expect to spend approximately 5 to 20 hours per month on Commission-related work. During start-up, the time required initially may be greater. Commissioners are expected to receive $250 per meeting and reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, in accordance with applicable County Code and policies.

Structure of the Ethics Commission

The Los Angeles County Ethics Commission will have seven members. Applications submitted through this process may be reviewed for consideration by the applicable nominating authority and/or the initial Ethics Commission, subject to the final ordinance and formal appointment by the Board of Supervisors.

The appointment structure includes the following nominating authorities:

- Governance Reform Task Force (GRTF) initial nomination / County Executive seat beginning in 2029- One member will initially be nominated through the GRTF process following a public recruitment and application process. Beginning January 1, 2029, this member will instead be nominated by the elected County Executive. This nominee must have a background in public information and public meetings, community outreach and engagement, or using technology as it relates to open government. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2029.
- Chair of the Board of Supervisors nomination- One member will be nominated by the Chair of the Board of Supervisors. This nominee must have a background in public policy or public law. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2030.
- Assessor nomination- One member will be nominated by the Assessor. This nominee must have a background in campaign finance, accounting, auditing, and compliance with ethics laws in the public or private sector, or protection of whistleblowers. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2027.
- Commission-nominated public applicant pool- Once the first three nominees are appointed, the Commission will nominate the remaining four members at a public meeting following a public recruitment and application process, which should include outreach to communities that are underrepresented in the County's political process. These nominees should be broadly representative of the general public, and at least one Commission-nominated member must reside in an unincorporated area of Los Angeles County. The initial terms for two Commission-nominated seats will expire on June 30, 2028, and the initial terms for the remaining two Commission-nominated seats will expire on June 30, 2031.

After the initial staggered terms, Commissioners will serve five-year terms beginning July 1 and ending June 30. A member who has served a complete five-year term is not eligible for reappointment. If a replacement has not been appointed by the end of a member's term, the member may continue serving in a holdover capacity until a new member is appointed, for a period not to exceed one year.

Nominating authorities shall value lived experience, community leadership, traditional and non-traditional expertise, and working-class accessibility. Nominating authorities and the Board shall consider relevant analytical skills, ability to be impartial, and appreciation for the County's diverse demographics, to the extent feasible and permissible by law.

Commissioners may also be subject to attendance requirements, including possible vacancy provisions for missed meetings, ceasing to be a county resident, removal, or other circumstances specified by ordinance.

Section 4 - Background and Experience

Please keep responses brief and focused. The questions below are intended to help identify whether applicants have background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge in areas identified for the Ethics Commission’s appointment structure. Applicants are not required to select a nominating authority or appointment category.

Why are you interested in serving on the Los Angeles County Ethics Commission?

I have long been committed to promoting transparency, accountability, and the highest ethical standards in government and elections. Throughout my legal career, I have worked to make community, business, and professional organizations more open, accessible, and transparent. I also have a deep interest in effective governance, including the development and reform of organizational charters, bylaws, policies, and procedures.

The opportunity to serve on the County’s first Ethics Commission would allow me to apply that experience to the important work of establishing and implementing systems for administering County and state laws governing campaign finance, governmental ethics, lobbying, and County contracting.

I recently completed a five-year term on the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission, serving as its President during my final two years. In that role, I led a comprehensive effort to strengthen the Commission’s independence and improve its effectiveness through amendments to the Los Angeles City Charter. These provisions had not been substantially updated since the Commission was established in 1991.

I helped develop the proposed charter reforms and worked with the City Council to place the Ethics Commission’s recommendations before voters as Measure ER on the November 2024 ballot. The measure was approved with nearly 75 percent of the vote. I also spearheaded two separate efforts to modernize the City’s Municipal Lobbying Ordinance.

As President, I worked to make the Commission’s own proceedings more open and accessible. Among other reforms, I improved the public comment process and helped establish remote public comment at every Commission meeting. I believe the Ethics Commission was the first Los Angeles City commission to implement that level of remote public participation following the COVID-19 pandemic.

The creation of a new County Ethics Commission presents a rare opportunity to build a strong, independent, and effective institution from the outset. My experience in governmental ethics, organizational governance, charter reform, public participation, and policy implementation would enable me to make a meaningful contribution to that work.

I would be honored to serve on the County Ethics Commission and to help establish the policies, procedures, and culture necessary to promote ethical government, public confidence, and meaningful accountability throughout the County.

- Public information
- Public meetings
- Community outreach and engagement
- Technology as it relates to open government

Please briefly describe the background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge for each area selected above.

Public Information

As a Los Angeles City Ethics Commissioner, I was extensively involved in the development and evolution of the Commission’s Public Data Portal. The portal makes a broad range of public records readily accessible, strengthening transparency and public understanding of the influence of money on City issues and governmental decision making. The information available through the portal includes campaign contributions and communications, lobbying activity, behested payments, Statements of Economic Interests (Form 700), formal ethics advice, enforcement orders, campaign audits, restricted developer information and contracts, and numerous other required reports and filings.

Public Meetings

I have received extensive training in both the California Ralph M. Brown Act and the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act. I also have more than 12 years of experience addressing open-meeting compliance issues and ensuring compliance while serving as Chair or President of City of Los Angeles commissions. In addition, for several years, I addressed Bagley-Keene Act compliance matters relating to the activities of the State Bar of California.

Community Outreach and Engagement

Community outreach and public engagement have always been central to my work as an organizer and to every organization in which I have served. I have consistently sought to make government bodies, particularly City commissions, more accessible and responsive to the communities they serve.

For example, while chairing the Los Angeles City Rent Adjustment Commission, I arranged for meetings to be held in communities throughout Los Angeles, including during evening hours, to make participation more convenient and accessible to the public. In 2009, I also obtained authorization to create and personally administer the first Facebook Group for a Los Angeles City commission, before Facebook Pages existed, expanding the Commission’s ability to communicate and engage with residents.

My professional work has reflected the same commitment. I have regularly worked to connect the efforts of lawyers and legal organizations with the broader nonlawyer community. I often describe myself as a community organizer who happens to be a lawyer.

Technology as it relates to open government

I have substantial experience in using technology to enhance government transparency, public access, and administrative effectiveness. During my service on the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission, I was involved with the Commission’s Public Data Portal and technology-related matters concerning campaign finance disclosure, matching funds programs, and other public information initiatives and interactions.

As Chair of the Rent Adjustment Commission, I also participated in efforts to modernize and expand the information available through the Los Angeles Housing Department’s website, including improved public access to housing regulations, policies, and related resources.

Public law

Please briefly describe the background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge for each area selected above.

Public policy

My interest in public policy started before I became an attorney. I have been actively involved in public policy since my teen years at both the local and state levels. I first testified before the California Legislature when I was 19. I have had prominent roles in many political organizations including but not limited to overseeing some of the largest volunteer Democratic Headquarters in the United States in my role as Chair of the Democratic Party of the San Fernando Valley (2001-2007). I also served for approximately 20 years on the Executive Board of the California Democratic Party, more than 20 years on the Los Angeles County Democratic Party Central Committee and chaired its Judicial Interview Committee for more than 20 years.

I have played a direct role in the successful enactment of California legislation. My work has included amendments to the California Insurance Code on behalf of three California municipalities and, most recently, legislation enacted in 2024 amending California’s International Arbitration and Conciliation Act within the Code of Civil Procedure.

As a City Commissioner, I have been extensively involved in the development and implementation of public policy, including proposed amendments to the Los Angeles City Charter and revisions to municipal ordinances, such as the Los Angeles Municipal Lobbying Ordinance.

During my service on the Los Angeles Rent Adjustment Commission, I established an Internal Review Committee to conduct a comprehensive, regulation-by-regulation review of the City’s rent stabilization framework. The Committee revised outdated provisions, recommended the repeal of unnecessary regulations, and drafted significant new regulations, including comprehensive rules governing primary renovation work. This sustained effort involved meetings approximately every other week over a period of seven years.

Public Law

As an attorney, I have spent many years addressing issues involving the rule of law, legal accountability, and the fair application of legal standards. By way of example, I represented several California municipalities for five years in matters arising from the investment of tax-exempt municipal bond proceeds in Executive Life Insurance Company following its insolvency.

Through my leadership in professional legal organizations, I have also worked on a broad range of domestic and international rule of law matters. In my service on City commissions, I have consistently sought to ensure that public bodies act lawfully, reasonably, transparently, and fairly, and that their decisions reflect both sound legal principles and respect for the public they serve.

Campaign Finance

In addition to serving on the Los Angeles Ethics Commission, I have extensive real world experience in political campaigns. I have also long been involved in campaign finance reform efforts going back to the 1970s.

Accounting

My background and experience include interacting with treasurers for political organizations and campaigns as well as my service on the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission.

Auditing

My background and experience include being involved as a City Ethics Commissioner in the Ethics Commission’s auditing of City campaigns.

Ethics compliance in the public sector or private sector

My experience with public sector ethics and compliance is grounded in more than 20 years of service as a Los Angeles City Commissioner, including five years on the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission. In these roles, I have addressed a wide range of issues involving governmental ethics, accountability, transparency, and compliance.

In my legal practice, I have also worked extensively with complex rules of professional responsibility and their development. This experience includes reviewing and approving formal ethics opinions issued by the Los Angeles County Bar Association to provide guidance to attorneys on their professional obligations.

Protection of whistleblowers

As a City Commissioner, I have had experience addressing matters involving whistleblowers, including helping to ensure that individuals are able to report concerns safely, confidentially, and without fear of retaliation. In my legal practice, I have also represented whistleblowers in disputes arising from their efforts to disclose misconduct and other matters of public concern.

What expertise, analytical skills, community leadership or involvement, lived experiences, traditional or non-traditional expertise, or other perspectives would you bring to the Ethics Commission? In your response, please discuss any experience you have with ethics, campaign finance, lobbying, transparency, accountability, or government oversight laws, as well as how your professional, volunteer, educational, community, or life experiences would help you effectively serve as a Commissioner. (Desirable qualifications)

To avoid repeating information already provided, I respectfully refer to my responses to the preceding questions, which provide what I believe I can bring to the Ethics Commission.

As a Commissioner, you may be required to evaluate evidence, determine whether a person violated an ethics or campaign finance law, and, if so, decide whether a monetary penalty should be imposed. Please describe your ability to exercise independent judgment and act impartially and fairly when evaluating information and making decisions. If applicable, provide examples from your professional, volunteer, community, or personal experiences. (Desirable qualifications)

I have extensive experience conducting formal administrative hearings, including proceedings involving self-represented parties and alleged violations of ethics and campaign-finance laws. I have also presided over more than 500 hearings as a member of the Los Angeles Housing Department Appeals Board. In those proceedings, witnesses and parties were placed under oath, evidence and arguments were considered, and formal written decisions were issued. These hearings constituted the final stage of the City's administrative process, after which an aggrieved party's remaining recourse was to seek judicial review in Superior Court through a petition for writ of mandate.

In my professional practice, I am an active arbitrator in both domestic and international disputes and regularly conduct evidentiary hearings across a broad range of matters. During the past 12 months alone, I have received more than 150 arbitrator appointments. My international arbitration work, both as an arbitrator and as counsel, frequently requires navigating differences in culture, language, legal systems, and procedural expectations.

Throughout these proceedings, I have consistently focused on maintaining a fair, orderly, and transparent process. I am skilled at ensuring that all parties, including those without legal representation, are treated respectfully, understand the process, have a meaningful opportunity to be heard, and are able to present their strongest case.

Los Angeles County is one of the most diverse counties in the nation. Please describe your appreciation for the County's diverse demographics and how that appreciation would inform your service as a Commissioner. You may include examples from your professional, volunteer, educational, community, or life experiences, including any experience serving, engaging with, or working alongside diverse communities in Los Angeles County. (Desirable qualifications)

As a native of Los Angeles County, I have witnessed firsthand the extraordinary growth and transformation of our region's diversity over the course of my lifetime. I firmly believe that this diversity is one of Los Angeles County's greatest strengths, enriching our economy, our civic life, and our communities through a remarkable range of cultures, languages, experiences, and perspectives. I also experience that strength personally as a member of a multiracial family.

Throughout my professional and civic service, I have consistently worked to promote meaningful diversity within the organizations I have led and supported. Long before formal diversity policies became widespread, I made a deliberate effort to ensure that leadership, membership, appointments, and programming reflected diversity in all of its dimensions.

I am particularly proud of the diversity initiatives I have been able to help advance in organizations where I have held leadership roles. One example is the California Lawyers Association, which adopted forward-looking policies designed to promote inclusion throughout the organization. These initiatives include a model diversity policy for educational programs, a diversity toolkit for its sections and committees, and a diversity appointments policy intended to broaden participation and representation in leadership opportunities.

List any County, city, state, nonprofit, community, civic, advisory, professional, or other boards, commissions, committees, or organizations on which you currently serve or previously served. Include offices held, if any. If none, write "N/A."

I currently serve and have served on many boards and committees including as chair. I also have an extensive background in community organizing. The list below focuses on some of my governmental and professional service.
