   Staff Report
   Public Comment/Correspondence

5. Discussion and Potential Action: Response to the Board of Supervisors' Request for Additional Information on the County Legislative Analyst

   Following the presentations under Items 2 through 4, the Task Force will discuss how the information presented informs its response to the Board of Supervisors' October 20, 2026, action continuing the Task Force's recommendations (Board Agenda Item No. 18) and the Board's related requests for additional information on the future County Legislative Analyst's Office, including a range of options for the Office's functional scope and size with planning-level position counts and cost ranges. The discussion is intended to gather information and Task Force input in advance of the Board of Supervisors' further consideration of the Task Force's recommendations in January 2027. The Task Force may discuss the matter and take related actions, including providing direction to the GRTF Ad Hoc Subcommittee on Expansion of the Board, staff, and the consultant team on the options and information to be developed for a draft response, to return for Task Force discussion at its December 9, 2026, regular meeting.
