

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles County Ethics Commission

Background

In 2024, Los Angeles County voters passed Measure G, which requires the creation of an independent Ethics Commission and Office of Ethics Compliance to promote ethical, transparent, and accountable County government.

The Los Angeles County Ethics Commission is expected to serve as an independent ethics oversight body for the County. The Commission's role includes overseeing and enforcing laws related to campaign financing, lobbying, conflicts of interest, governmental ethics, and related matters; providing strategic oversight of the Office of Ethics Compliance; adopting rules, regulations, policies, complaint procedures, and penalty guidelines; issuing formal opinions; and adjudicating enforcement matters, including making final decisions following administrative hearings and imposing penalties where authorized.

The Office of Ethics Compliance will carry out the Commission's day-to-day work, which includes education and training, advice and guidance, public transparency and disclosure administration, investigations, audits, referrals to other enforcement agencies, and public reporting.

Ethics Commissioners may be asked to review sensitive or complex matters and must exercise independent judgment, fairness, impartiality, and discretion. Commissioners shall not act as representatives of any nominating authority, elected official, organization, or interest group.

The Commission will meet at least six times per calendar year, and meetings will be subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act. Commissioners will need to prepare for meetings, review materials, participate in hearings or other Commission activities, complete required trainings or disclosures, and comply with applicable ethics and service restrictions.

The time commitment is subject to change and may vary based on the Commission's meeting schedule, agenda items, enforcement matters, hearings, subcommittee meetings, preparation time, and other Commission business. Commissioners should expect to spend approximately 5 to 20 hours per month on Commission-related work. During start-up, the time required initially may be greater. Commissioners are expected to receive $250 per meeting and reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, in accordance with applicable County Code and policies.

Structure of the Ethics Commission

The Los Angeles County Ethics Commission will have seven members. Applications submitted through this process may be reviewed for consideration by the applicable nominating authority and/or the initial Ethics Commission, subject to the final ordinance and formal appointment by the Board of Supervisors.

The appointment structure includes the following nominating authorities:

- Governance Reform Task Force (GRTF) initial nomination / County Executive seat beginning in 2029- One member will initially be nominated through the GRTF process following a public recruitment and application process. Beginning January 1, 2029, this member will instead be nominated by the elected County Executive. This nominee must have a background in public information and public meetings, community outreach and engagement, or using technology as it relates to open government. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2029.
- Chair of the Board of Supervisors nomination- One member will be nominated by the Chair of the Board of Supervisors. This nominee must have a background in public policy or public law. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2030.
- Assessor nomination- One member will be nominated by the Assessor. This nominee must have a background in campaign finance, accounting, auditing, and compliance with ethics laws in the public or private sector, or protection of whistleblowers. The initial term for this seat will expire on June 30, 2027.
- Commission-nominated public applicant pool- Once the first three nominees are appointed, the Commission will nominate the remaining four members at a public meeting following a public recruitment and application process, which should include outreach to communities that are underrepresented in the County's political process. These nominees should be broadly representative of the general public, and at least one Commission-nominated member must reside in an unincorporated area of Los Angeles County. The initial terms for two Commission-nominated seats will expire on June 30, 2028, and the initial terms for the remaining two Commission-nominated seats will expire on June 30, 2031.

After the initial staggered terms, Commissioners will serve five-year terms beginning July 1 and ending June 30. A member who has served a complete five-year term is not eligible for reappointment. If a replacement has not been appointed by the end of a member's term, the member may continue serving in a holdover capacity until a new member is appointed, for a period not to exceed one year.

Nominating authorities shall value lived experience, community leadership, traditional and non-traditional expertise, and working-class accessibility. Nominating authorities and the Board shall consider relevant analytical skills, ability to be impartial, and appreciation for the County's diverse demographics, to the extent feasible and permissible by law.

Commissioners may also be subject to attendance requirements, including possible vacancy provisions for missed meetings, ceasing to be a county resident, removal, or other circumstances specified by ordinance.

Section 4 - Background and Experience

Please keep responses brief and focused. The questions below are intended to help identify whether applicants have background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge in areas identified for the Ethics Commission’s appointment structure. Applicants are not required to select a nominating authority or appointment category.

Why are you interested in serving on the Los Angeles County Ethics Commission?

I was an outside counsel to the Cowen Commission when the first Los Angeles Ethics Commission was formed. Since then I have been actively involved in legal practice and legal education involving legal ethics. I also have had a robust experience providing Pro Bono legal activities. In addition to being a co-founder of the Federal Civil Rights Panel, after completing my tenure as a Federal Prosecutor in Los Angeles I served on the Federal Criminal Indigent Defense Panel. With $500,000 I was awarded as a result of my successful representation of the Plaintiff in Johnson v. California in the U.S. Supreme Court, I worked with the District Court and Public Counsel to found the Pro Se Clinic in Los Angeles providing legal advice to unrepresented litigants. I have also been active in the County as the Deputy General Counsel of the Citizens' Commission on Jail Violence and as Special Counsel to the Sheriff's Civilian Oversight Commission. There I led a team of lawyers investigating alleged gang activity of Sheriff's deputies and conducted 8 public hearings on the subject. At my core, ensuring ethical behavior by those in power, particularly in these times, is how I'd like to spend the next chapter of my career.

Community outreach and engagement

Please briefly describe the background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge for each area selected above.

Please see section above. I was the counsel to the first iteration of the Ethics Commission and have had deep and long involvement in pro bono activities directly impacting the community, including funding the Federal Pro Se Clinic to allow indigent litigants to get legal advice. And as described I was Deputy General Counsel and conducted public hearings and examination regarding the Commission of Violence in the L.A. County Jails, including cross-examining then Under Sheriff Tanaka on the topic of violence in the jails. Recently as Special Counsel to the Sheriff's Oversight Commission I examined in 8 public hearings witnesses regarding the existence and activities of deputy gangs and cliques in the Sheriff's Department and revealed the damage such activities inflicted upon the community. Moreover throughout the course of my career as a lawyer I have served on multiple not for profit organization boards including Public Counsel, Western Justice Center and others

Ethics compliance in the public or private sector

Please briefly describe the background, experience, education, training, or other relevant knowledge for each area selected above.

See description above regarding initial work in formation of the Ethics Commission in Los Angeles, and conduct of the LASD in jails and in policing more generally.

What expertise, analytical skills, community leadership or involvement, lived experiences, traditional or non-traditional expertise, or other perspectives would you bring to the Ethics Commission? In your response, please discuss any experience you have with ethics, campaign finance, lobbying, transparency, accountability, or government oversight laws, as well as how your professional, volunteer, educational, community, or life experiences would help you effectively serve as a Commissioner. (Desirable qualifications)

As described above, I have had much experience in the public sector focused on behavioral norms in policing, advancing access to justice and service on multiple Boards and leading teams as a practicing lawyer all designed to cooperatively and efficiently achieve defined and aspired to goals.

As a Commissioner, you may be required to evaluate evidence, determine whether a person violated an ethics or campaign finance law, and, if so, decide whether a monetary penalty should be imposed. Please describe your ability to exercise independent judgment and act impartially and fairly when evaluating information and making decisions. If applicable, provide examples from your professional, volunteer, community, or personal experiences. (Desirable qualifications)

My entire 50 year legal career, including my years as a federal prosecutor, have consistently involved such evaluations. Every case representing individuals or entities requires my independent and knowledge based judgment on what is a reasonable resolution or whether the best interests of clients require trial or arbitration with a neutral decisionmaker. My years as a prosecutor required careful thinking regarding what cases should be prosecuted, what charges should fairly be leveled and in the event of a conviction what sentence fit the crime and the defendant. Such judgments are a core part of a litigation lawyer and prosecutor's work.

Los Angeles County is one of the most diverse counties in the nation. Please describe your appreciation for the County's diverse demographics and how that appreciation would inform your service as a Commissioner. You may include examples from your professional, volunteer, educational, community, or life experiences, including any experience serving, engaging with, or working alongside diverse communities in Los Angeles County. (Desirable qualifications)

In addition to service on law focused boards, I have served multiple years as a Board member of my Temple and on an Independent School where I headed the school's diversity committee. I have been deeply involved in civil rights litigation representing numerous persons of color, different religions and sexual orientations. I think for example of my successful representation of a Muslim prisoner suing a prison that upon the order of the prison Chaplain, a Rabbi, refused to allow him to eat Kosher meals, the equivalent of Halal food; The representation of a trans Woman housed in a male prison dormitory subjected to sexual assault from prisoners and prison guards; a long string of cases representing Black prisoners facing racial discrimination in housing leading to the landmark U.S. Supreme Court case of Johnson v. California; the 14 year pro bono representation by appointment of the California Supreme Court of Stanley Williams, an alleged co-founder of the Crips, in connection with the direct and collateral appeal from his death sentence.
