Smithfield® and Gene Haas Foundation Donate $50,000 To Tuesday's Children Charity In Honor Of The 20th Anniversary Of Sept. 11

To Spotlight Tuesday's Children's Mission of Providing a Lifetime of Healing for Families, the No. 10 Smithfield Ford Mustang Will Feature the Charity's Logo and a Commemorative 9/11 Paint Scheme During Saturday Night's Race in Richmond, Virginia

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 8, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Yesterday, Smithfield® and the Gene Haas Foundation had the honor of recognizing Tuesday's Children - an organization formed in the wake of 9/11 that provides a lifetime of healing for families who have been affected by terrorism, military conflict or mass violence - with a $50,000 donation at Stewart-Haas Racing's headquarters in Kannapolis, N.C. In addition to the donation, race car driver Aric Almirola unveiled the special-edition No. 10 Smithfield Ford Mustang that he will pilot in the Sept. 11 NASCAR Cup Series race at Richmond Raceway. The Ford Mustang car will feature a commemorative 9/11 paint scheme and the Tuesday's Children logo to honor those whose lives were forever changed by the tragedy and further spotlight the non-profit's mission.

Since Tuesday's Children was founded nearly two decades ago, it has served more than 42,000 individuals. The organization's goal is to ensure that families who have suffered losses due to the events of 9/11, post-9/11 military service, or other acts of mass violence and terrorism always have a comforting place to turn to for support and community. This $50,000 donation will help provide individuals and families with counseling and support, youth mentorship and career guidance, healing through service and peacebuilding, and much more.

"Tuesday's Children is excited and honored to partner with Smithfield and the Gene Haas Foundation for the 20th anniversary of 9/11," said Lisa Oosterom, Chief Financial Officer at Tuesday's Children. "We are truly grateful for their support of our work so that we can continue to deliver our programs and services to the families and children that lost loved ones on Tuesday, Sept. 11, the 9/11 responders and to our nation's Gold Star Families. We are also honored and grateful that the No. 10 Smithfield Ford Mustang will feature the Tuesday's Children logo during Saturday night's race. We can't wait to see it on the track!"

"With Saturday's race in Richmond taking place on the 20th anniversary of Sept. 11, we wanted to pay tribute to those who were affected by the heinous acts of 9/11," said Aric Almirola, driver of the Stewart-Haas Racing No. 10 Smithfield Ford Mustang. "Tuesday's Children has done an incredible job serving as a strong support system for so many individuals and families throughout the last two decades, and I am privileged to be a part of this moment to spotlight their organization through this donation and paint scheme."

"We couldn't be more honored to share this donation with Tuesday's Children and give the organization the recognition it deserves for its tireless work in supporting those impacted by 9/11," said Chris Braselton, brand manager at Smithfield Foods. "We're grateful for Tuesday's Children and support their mission to continue lifting up and caring for the people whose lives were forever changed 20 years ago. Just like the No. 10 Ford Mustang says, 'We Will Never Forget.'"
