

Baptist Occupational Health comprehensive services help you manage your company's drug and alcohol programs.

- Employee roster will be placed into a program management system for a random selection process.
- The employee testing selection process is based on parameters provided by the employer.
- Employer can determine sample size and frequency of selection (annual, semi-annual, quarterly, monthly).

Baptist Occupational Health will maintain records of screened employees, testing period and will notify when testing is due.