This is a breakdown of your gas for this bill. It will be displayed by showing you how many kWh was used on vour meter. We've three main types of readings:

A - actual reading taken by Gas Networks Ireland

c - customer reading vou've aiven us

- estimated reading from Gas Networks Ireland

There is more information on meter reads and how to submit your meter read later in this guide.

For Level Pay customers only

Here you'll see the payments that will be deducted from vour account by Direct Debit in the coming months, along with the dates when payments will be taken. We carry out regular reviews to make sure vour monthly payments are in line with the amount of energy you are using. Any changes to your payments will also be reflected here.

Payment options

There are a number of different ways that you can pay for your gas bill:

Direct Debit

This is the easiest and most convenient way to pay your bill. Your bank account will be debited 14 days after your bill issue date for the total amount due on your bill. If you would like to sign up for Direct Debit, you can do this in your online account.

Pav online

If you have an online account, you can sign in and easily make a payment on your bill. You'll also be given the option to save your card details for future payments. If you don't have an online account, you can either register here or use our Pay Now option to make a payment instantly. Visit bordgaisenergy. ie/home/paynow for more information.

24-hour telephone payment service

You can call our payment service on 01 611 01 06 to pay with your bank debit or credit card. Please have your account number ready. Your account number can be found on your gas bill.

Other payment options

You can also make a payment at Payzone or PostPoint retail outlets, or at any Post Office.

Concerns about paying your energy bill?

If you're concerned about paying your bill, please get in touch with us straight away. We can help. We've a range of flexible options for you.

Moving to Level Pay

Level Pay can help you spread the cost of your bill over the year. We'll take the gas usage of your home over the last 12 months and apply our current prices to calculate your annual bill. We then simply divide by 12 to create monthly payments. If you would like to sign up to Level Pay, you can fill in our online form here.

Installing a Pay As You Go (PAYG) meter

A PAYG meter allows you to pay for your gas as you use it. You won't receive a bill from us, so it's a simple way to pay for your energy. It helps you to budget for your energy use, and you can see how much energy you use on a daily basis. We'll send you a regular statement so you can keep an eye on how much you've used. We have a limited number of PAYG meters that we give out to our customers who are facing financial difficulty.

Setting up a payment plan

We know everyone's circumstances are different. If you're still concerned about your energy costs, please contact us to talk about other payment plans that might work better for you.

Other options

If you receive Social Welfare payments, you can spread the cost of your energy bills by paying regular amounts towards your bills. The money is then deducted from your weekly Social Welfare payment through An Post's Household Budget scheme. Contact An Post for more information.

Customers can also contact the Money Advice and Budgeting Service (MABS), who provide information and assist customers with putting budget plans in place. MABS is a national, free, independent, confidential, and nonjudgmental service for people in debt or at risk of getting into debt. The MABS helpline service is 0818 07 2000 and is open Monday to Friday 9am to 8pm.

Your Online Account Management

Did you know you can manage your electricity account online?

You can sign in here or register here. All you need is your account number and GPRN to get started. You can find both of these numbers on your bill.

Once your online account is set up, you can:

Make a payment online

Check your next bill due date

View and download vour bills

Check your gas usage

Check your account balance

Register for paperless billing

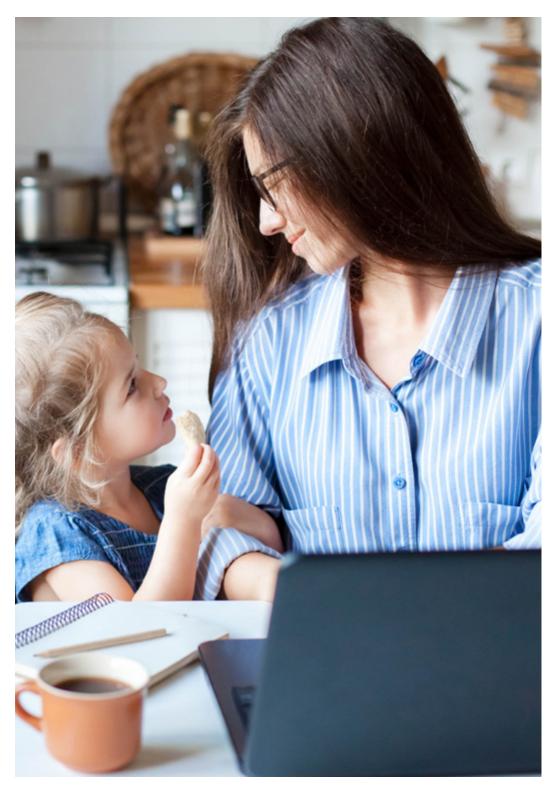

Submit a meter reading

Create or change your Direct Debit

If your meter has not been read directly by Gas Networks Ireland in more than twelve months, you will need to submit your meter reading to Gas Networks Ireland directly. There is more information on this later in the guide.

Meter readings

Q. How do I read my meter?

A. Submitting meter readings will ensure accuracy of your bills and can help save you money. If you're unsure on how to read your meter, we've a number of helpful videos and a detailed step-by-step guide that you can find here.

Q. How do I submit a meter reading?

A. You can call Gas Networks Ireland on 1800 42 77 32 or submit a reading online here. You'll need your GPRN which can be found on your bill.

Q. When should I submit a meter reading?

A. Within 5 days of your next bill issue date is a good time to submit a read. If the read is submitted during this time and is accepted by Gas Networks Ireland, it will be used on your next bill. If you have submitted a read outside of this time, this may not be used on your next bill. Every meter reading helps make your future bills more accurate.

To check your next bill issue date, you can sign in to your online account and select the account you wish to view.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How will I know if my contract is ending?

A. We'll send you a letter or an email notifying you that your contract is coming to an end and what you can do next. This will be sent to you at least 30 days before the end of your contract.

Q. How can I find out what discounts I am on?

A. You can find out what discounts you are on, if applicable, by viewing the 'bill breakdown' section of your bill, which we have discussed on pg.5.

Q. When is my next bill due?

A. Your next bill will be in two months' time. You can see your exact billing date by checking your online account.

Q. How will the price change be shown on my bill?

A. Bills will be split between consumption, before and after the price change:

- Up to 14 April 2022 at the previous rates and consumption
- From 15 April 2022 at the new rates

If your bill is more than one page in length, this may show on your first and second pages.
