Vogue CS's July 2019 Cover Features Zuzana Čaputová, First Female President of Slovakia

Vogue CS is the only Czech and Slovak fashion magazine to secure an exclusive photo shoot and interview with Zuzana Čaputová, the first female president of Slovakia for the July 2019 issue. The issue will launch on June 13th, just two days before her inauguration.

Mrs. Čaputová is not only the first female president in the history of the Czech Republic and Slovakia, but also the first female president since the establishment of Czechoslovakia in 1918. The interview was conducted by Adéla Vinczeová, the respected Slovak moderator and journalist, and the photographs were shot by acclaimed art photographer Ivan Pinkava.

Since Vogue CS was launched last year, July 2019 marks the first time that there is only one cover. We do this out of respect and admiration for Mrs. Čaputová. On the cover, she wears a suit from the Slovak clothing brand Nehera and holds a single flower.

The June issue also features:

- M is for... Madonna - Audience with the Queen of Pop
- Helmut Newton - Eva Herzigova and others recall the legendary photographer
- Train to Rome - Triumph of a village boy Pierpaola Piccioli at Valentino
- Love of a Blonde – Czech classic film in Cannes, Karlovy Vary and elsewhere
