10. Liability

The Organiser assumes no liability for the use, validity or performance of the Prize after it has been awarded to the winners, within the limits permitted by law. Any difficulty, unavailability or inability to enjoy the Prize, resulting in particular from the actions or omissions of a third party or from circumstances beyond the Organiser's control, shall not render the Organiser liable in any way whatsoever.

The Organiser reserves the right, if circumstances so require, to shorten, extend, modify, interrupt, postpone or cancel the Competition, without incurring any liability. The Organiser undertakes to inform participants by any appropriate means as soon as possible.

11. Supplementary provisions

The Organiser reserves the right to modify all or part of these rules, provided that participants are informed by any appropriate means.

Participation in the Competition implies full and unreserved acceptance of these rules.

These rules apply in addition to the Bank's general terms and conditions and the terms and conditions applicable to the banking products concerned, which are accepted without reservation.

The Bank reserves the right to modify, suspend or terminate the Competition at any time, particularly in cases of force majeure or fraud, without incurring any liability.

Any modification will be communicated by the means the Bank deems appropriate.

12. Applicable law and jurisdiction

The Competition is subject to Swiss law. Any dispute that may arise will be settled by the ordinary courts of the Canton of Geneva, subject to appeal to the Swiss Federal Supreme Court.
