"When we were doing some research we had people from the UK come and promote universities from different areas. There were so many promoting London, but my mum and I were looking for somewhere a bit more quiet and a bit more humble – just a very nice area, which is student orientated. They said Leeds was the perfect place for me because it's welcoming to students and it's a very nice place to be."

Mbololwa from Zambia
Studied International Foundation Year in Engineering, Science and Computing
Progressed to BSc (Hons) Sports Coaching at Leeds Beckett University

"Leeds is lots of fun as there is plenty to do. I like the opportunity to meet people from all over the world and everyone in the city is very friendly."
