Hanze University of Applied Sciences

Hanze is located in the student city of Groningen, offering practical and career-focused degrees to prepare you for today's global employment market.

The place to be for entrepreneurs

Hanze University of Applied Sciences is ranked 13th worldwide in the subcategory Graduate Companies, i.e. companies founded by alumni, in the internationally-recognised U-Multirank (2020). Entrepreneurship is one of Hanze's focus areas – the University strongly encourage and support students to develop an entrepreneurial mindset and help them where we can to start their own business.

Practical and career-focused

Lecturers at Hanze are industry experts so you can be inspired by their experience and learn from real-life examples. Courses include a mixture of academic teaching, practical assignments and work placements. Your assignments will reflect real-life scenarios and teach you how to conduct your time. All this will support you to develop the skills you need for your future career, from excellent teamwork to confident communication.

Groningen is a thriving student city in the north of Holland where about 25% of the population are students. This also means it is Holland's most youthful city – by living and learning here, you will become part of a community of likeminded people.

Around 61% of all journeys are made by bicycle in Groningen and it is easy to see why. The city centre is safe and easy to travel around thanks to no cars and a large network of cycle lanes. It is also a fantastic city to enjoy historic architecture, shopping and diverse culture such as galleries, museums, and music.

I did my placement in Groningen for an online sports retailer. This was a good opportunity for me to gain practical experience. We have studied in Hanze and learnt a lot of theory, so this was a good chance to apply it in real cases.
