Terms and Conditions

Scholarship Description

1. The Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship is funded by the UCD College of Business and aims to attract excellent candidates to full-time undergraduate business degree programmes and to encourage early application.
2. Candidates will be considered on merit paired with holistic review of their programme application.
3. The Scholarship is payable only toward the tuition fees of the successful candidate.

Preconditions

4. Successful candidates must be self-funding, citizens and current residents of a Non-EU country and classified as Non-EU for application and for tuition fee purposes.
5. Eligible programmes are limited to those that are full-time undergraduate taught programmes, where the student must be based in Dublin and no part of the programme is awarded by another institution. A full list of eligible programmes is provided in Eligible Programmes.
6. Candidates for the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship will be informed of their eligibility for the scholarship at the time of offer and all queries should be directed to the relevant Regional Admissions Team.
7. This Scholarship cannot be combined with any other tuition scholarship. If the student already has another UCD scholarship eg International Student Scholarship, Global Excellence Scholarship and is subsequently awarded the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship, only the higher amount will apply. The student cannot hold two different awards.

Due Date and Timeframes

8. Successful and reserve candidates for the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship will be selected by the Scholarship Committee.
9. Candidates will be notified within two to four weeks of the committee decision.
10. The Scholarship Committee's decisions are final and cannot be appealed.
11. Following notification of an offer for a Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship, students must accept their scholarship offer by the specified method within three weeks of the notification. Please note that:
 - a. It is the student's responsibility to formally accept the scholarship offer.
 - b. Failure to respond within the given time frame will be considered as declining the scholarship offer.
 - c. A declined or lapsed offer for the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship cannot be reinstated.
12. Candidates for the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship must pay the deposit required upon acceptance of an offer to study at UCD. Only candidates who have paid their deposit by the time of accepting the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship will successfully secure both their Scholarship and programme at UCD.
13. Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarships are non-transferable and will apply only to the programme and academic term (or 'commencement date') associated with the offer letter that contains the scholarship award. Once the offer of a Quinn School of Business VPI

Discretionary Scholarship has been issued, a student who declines the initial offer of admission to UCD or defers to another commencement date may not retain the Scholarship for another programme or commencement date. If a student chooses to defer their entry to UCD after the offer of a Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship is extended, they will forfeit their scholarship.

Student Obligations

14. By accepting a Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship, students commit to contributing to at least one of any of the following platforms, as reasonably requested by the College of Business:
 - College of Business social media content
 - College of Business website content
 - Discussion groups and panels, surveys
 - Additional events or activities for the promotion of the College of Business.
15. Only students who remain continuously enrolled in UCD may retain their Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship.
16. A student who withdraws, cancels, becomes inactive, enrolls as less than full-time, is suspended or dismissed from the University will lose their scholarship eligibility. If a student's enrolment status is changed to any of the aforementioned statuses due to medical reasons (or other approved extenuating circumstances), they may appeal in writing to the Scholarship Committee to have their scholarship reinstated upon return to normal, full-time enrolment at the University. The appeal and supporting documentation, such as a letter from a doctor, should be emailed to the appropriate Programme Manager in the Quinn School Programme Office. In order for reinstatement of the Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarship to be considered, a student's leave from the University cannot exceed two consecutive trimesters.
17. Quinn School of Business VPI Discretionary Scholarships are automatically renewed each year of a programme, on condition that the student maintains a Stage GPA of 3.08/4.20 and meets the programme progression and credit requirements within one academic year, or the first attempt of a given stage.
18. All scholarship and funding schemes are subject to availability of funds, and details given here are subject to change at any time. Potential applicants are urged to check information regularly to ensure they are aware of current procedures, deadlines and other information.
19. The University reserves the right to withdraw, vary or amend any aspect of a Scholarship if it is found that an error or mistake has been made by the University.

Note that all Terms and Conditions are subject to change without notification.
