

Your first week at the ISC

Where should I go?

University of Sussex International Study Centre, Friston Building, Falmer, Brighton, BN1 9SP

When should I be there?

On your start date (on the offer letter). The exact time will depend on your intake and chosen programme.

You will be sent your Welcome Week timetable before this is due to take place.

What will happen during my induction week?

Your induction sessions are an important part of getting settled into life as a student at the International Study Centre and will help ensure your success for the upcoming academic year!

Our induction week will introduce you to the International Study Centre, your classmates, tutors, welfare and support services. You will also receive full guidance on maintaining your health and safety whilst studying with us, as well as events to help you to get to know your fellow students.

Make sure you are prepared to start your induction on time. Please note that if you are joining induction after the first day, you will be required to join one of the “Late Arrivals - Passport / Visa scans sessions later. Please be aware that you will NOT be able to start your classes if you do not bring your Passport / Visa during induction.

If you experience any problems, please email sussexisc@studygroup.com for assistance.
