Protection under this item applies only to household goods shipments and is subject to the shipments being declared or released at the following maximum valuation amounts or $6.00 per pound times the actual net weight of the shipment, whichever is greater; and is further subject to a minimum lump sum valuation of $10,000. The weight used for determining the minimum valuation shall be either the actual net weight of the shipment or the estimated weight when a shipment is transported under a binding estimate.

The charge for valuation exceeding $250,000 shall be the applicable charge for the first $250,000 of declared or released value plus the stated additional rate per $100, or fraction thereof, for the amount of valuation in excess of $250,000.

Option A: Carrier assumes responsibility as specified in this item for the declared or released maximum valuation amount.

Option B: Carrier assumes responsibility as specified in this item subject to a $250 deductible amount.

Option C: Carrier assumes responsibility as specified in this item subject to a $500 deductible amount.

If a deductible option is selected, the deductible amount shall be subtracted from any amount otherwise due customer under this item. No deductible is applicable when customer makes a written exception at the time of delivery for non-delivery of an inventoried item(s) and subsequently submits a properly documented claim for loss, and carrier establishes carrier's liability through investigation.
