GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Although the gospel is a report of ministerial commissioning, it contains elements of discipleship in general. Most obvious is the disciples' dependence on Jesus. They are not independent missionaries; they are followers. Furthermore, there is a communal dimension of discipleship. While there is certainly a personal relationship between Jesus and each disciple, discipleship itself is not a singular privilege that one hugs to oneself to the exclusion of others.

Disciples minister to the needs of others, whatever those needs may be and with whatever abilities the disciple may possess. There are various kinds of healing: a friendly smile, a word of gratitude, a soothing touch. We can teach the lessons of life in classrooms, in playrooms, in kitchens, in boardrooms. There are many ways that we can cast out the demons that hold our world by the throat; demons of poverty and oppression, demons of addiction and slavery, demons of disdain and neglect, demons of hatred and violence. If they are not cast out by us, then by whom?

The life of discipleship is not an unmixed blessing. Because disciples are marked by the sign of the cross, they must expect suffering. Because they do not live according to the standards of the world, disciples will be judged as fools. Some of them will be subjected to even greater suffering. Still, the disciple proclaims that true fulfilment is only found in God! In reality, it is the world that is upside down, not the life of discipleship. And it is the cross that sets things right.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday. 3 July 2022. Every year, on the first Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. This year our theme challenges us all into action. The Harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few. Matthew 9:37. Get up! Stand up! Show up! For 2022 NATSICC is asking for everyone to come together, but also consider practical ways in which they can support Australia's First Peoples - not just for this special day, but every day. The artwork "Mumeri" captures the use of Aboriginal and Catholic symbolism.

Blessed, Broken and Shared—Reflection on Ministry: Liturgy Ministry.

* In the busyness of life, it's very easy to become a passive observer in Liturgy; showing up in body but not in mind and spirit. With young children, a demanding job and myriad other distractions, prior to volunteering I would sometimes struggle to be fully present in the celebration of Mass, my mind wandering off in different directions. I began volunteering in order to try to ground my consciousness and to become more present in the celebration of liturgy. Initially, that took the form of participating in the Children's Liturgy team. In more recent times, with COVID sending Children's Liturgy into hiatus, it has been through leading, reading and, recently, becoming a Eucharistic Minister. Volunteering has, without doubt, offered the opportunity to become more present and to engage more reflectively in the Liturgy. Participating in the Ministry at St Mary's for the past 8 years has enriched me and my children with a deep sense of belonging to a generous, compassionate, warm and very welcoming community of faith.

* I thoroughly enjoy my ministry as a volunteer. I had a strong calling to become a volunteer about three years ago. I look forward to my duties whether it be leader, reader or special minister after which I feel my faith strengthens and helps me to face the challenges of the coming week whatever they may be, knowing that God is guiding me through my journey.
