THE CITY

Homo Cosmicos / Shutterstock.com

In the heart of Jerez, the historic centre unfolds its charm along streets lined with orange trees and majestic palm trees, revealing a stunning array of magnificent palaces. The city's architectural heritage tells an interesting tale, boasting a diverse range of styles including a Moorish fortress, Mudejar churches, elegant Renaissance, Baroque, and Neoclassical facades, and intricately adorned ironwork balconies.

But the allure of Jerez doesn't end with its architectural wonders. The city is steeped in centuries-old traditions, inviting travellers on immersive tours into the art of sherry-making and local folklore. Nestled in the vibrant province of Cádiz, Jerez pulsates with life, captivating visitors with its rich history and cultural vibrancy.

DINING

asife/Shutterstock.com

Bearing the vestiges of Andalusian cuisine, Jerez blends its rich, traditional flavours with local specialities in which sherry comes as a welcomed ingredient and the finest seafood arrives fresh from the nearby towns.

The main concentration of restaurants sits along Calle Consistorio and Plaza Vargas, serving the best of the regional cuisine. Some of the most popular dishes include riñones al Jerez (kidneys braised in sherry), caldereta (stews), and rabo de toro (oxtail).

Across Spain is very common to have lunch at 3 pm or dine after 10 pm, but a few tapas and a couple of glasses of a full-bodied Manzanilla usually go in between to keep the hunger at bay.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Tupungato & Shutterstock.com

Jerez Airport (XRY)

Stacked sherry barrels greet arrivals at Jerez Airport (XRY), which is located 8km northeast of the city. Buses, trains, and taxis are available for transfers to and from Jerez outside the terminal building.

The cheapest solution would be opting for means of public transportation. The bus line M-050 connects the city to the airport and tickets can be bought on the bus. The train journey to Jerez de La Frontera (train line C-1) takes approximately 9 minutes.

You'll find a taxi rank outside the terminal building and the journey takes about 20 minutes. Alternatively, you can choose to rent a car with car rental companies located at the airport.

Passport / Visa

Spain can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travellers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

Although it's quite popular to visit Jerez in July and August, these months can be very hot. You'll find the best weather during spring (April to June) or in early autumn (September). Jerez holds some popular festivals: Flamenco Festival in February, Jerez Horse Fair in May, and Jerez Sherry Festival in September. If you plan on visiting during these periods, remember to book in advance.

Public Transport

The city's historic centre is small and sights are located within walking distance. A local bus service also operates in and outside Jerez de La Frontera, and the main bus station is located in the city centre, where you'll find detailed information about routes and timetables. Buses run to Cadiz, Seville, or to many of the picturesque pueblos blancos (white towns) and coastal towns. Frequent trains leave for Cadiz and Seville.

Post

You can buy stamps, postcards, or envelopes at local newsagents bearing the sign "Tabacos". If you need to mail letters, you'll find mailboxes throughout town, which are distinctly yellow with a blue sign. Alternatively, you can head to one of the post offices (Oficina de Correos), for example:

Calle Cerrón 2, Jerez
