EMBARGO: THE MISSING SISTER BY LUCINDA RILEY

Dear Customer

On 27 May 2021, Pan Macmillan will publish The Missing Sister by Lucinda Riley and an embargoed on-sale date for the publication has therefore been set for that date.

Our policy is to maintain and enforce this on-sale date.

As this is an international release date we are bound to the principal publisher to adhere to this date. Please ensure that your stores and relevant staff are aware of the release date and of the liabilities should they breach the embargo date, books may not be unpacked or sold before this date.

You are required to sign and return a copy of this letter on behalf of your organisation thereby confirming your organisation's acceptance of and agreeing to abide to the above. Your order will not be supplied until such written confirmation is received.

Yours faithfully

Roshni Sinan
Operations Director
Pan Macmillan South Africa
