Black Sacred Music

Editor: Quinton Dixie and Emmett G. Price III

Subject Areas:

Frequency: Two issues annually

2026 Volume: 10

Relaunched as an open access journal in 2026, Black Sacred Music explores projects comprising both traditional and new approaches to black sacred music. While most of the scholarly works engaging in this area of study are Christocentric, this journal opens the conversation across disciplinary and faith lines. By expanding the boundary of blackness beyond the confines of African American, the journal examines pan-African and global perspectives on race and ethnicity.

Comparative Studies of South Asia, Africa and the Middle East

Editors: Manan Ahmed and Steven Pierce

Subject Areas: Asian Studies; African Studies; Middle East Studies

Frequency: Three issues annually

2026 Volume: 46

CSSAAME seeks to bring region and area studies into conversation with a rethinking of theory and the disciplines. Its aim is twofold: to ask how area and region are implicated in the production of geohistorical universals and, conversely, to attend to the specificity of non-Western social, political, and intellectual formations as these challenge normative assumptions of social life, cultural practice, and historical transformation.

liquid blackness journal of aesthetics and black studies

Editors: Alessandra Raengo and Lauren McLeod Cramer

Subject Areas: African American Studies and Black Diaspora; Art Criticism and Theory; Media Studies

Frequency: Two issues annually

2026 Volume: 10

liquid blackness seeks to carve out a place for aesthetic theory and the most radical agenda of Black studies to come together in productive ways, with the goal of attending to the aesthetic work of blackness and the political work of form. In this way, the journal develops innovative approaches to address points of convergence between the exigencies of Black life and the many slippery ways in which blackness is encountered in contemporary sonic and visual culture.
