

Top Titles in the Native and Indigenous Studies Collection

With 130 books, the Native and Indigenous Studies e-book collection brings together theoretically driven, interdisciplinary scholarship that reflects the field's expanding global scope. Built around innovative work by Indigenous scholars and community-centered research, the collection highlights Indigenous voices, methodologies, and intellectual leadership. With strong global perspectives and notable strength in Pacific scholarship, the collection offers libraries a dynamic and expanding resource that supports teaching, interdisciplinary inquiry, and long-term collection development.

Top Titles

- Noenoe K. Silva,
Aloha Betrayed
- Audra Simpson,
Mohawk Interruptus
- Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani Hobart,
Cooling the Tropics
- Joanne Barker,
Critically Sovereign
- Jen Rose Smith,
Ice Geographies
- J. Kehaulani Kauanui,
Paradoxes of Hawaiian Sovereignty
- Max Liboiron,
Pollution is Colonialism
- Renya K. Ramirez,
Native Hubs
- Maria Sháa Tláa Williams,
Alaska Native Reader
- Jodi A. Byrd,
Indigenomicon
- Noelani Goodyear-Kaopua, Ikaika Hussey,
Erin Kahunawaika'ala Wright, editors
A Nation Rising

DUKE

UNIVERSITY
PRESS

dukeu.press/nat-ind