

A Safe and Secure Olympic and Paralympic Game Experience

- A US Department of Homeland Security – National Special Security Event (NSSE) designation
- Requires an all-hands partnership comprised of federal, State, local and LA28 public safety, emergency management and security organizations
- Includes extensive security, crisis and consequence planning, training, exercising and resourcing in preparation for all hazards and risks