About LA vs. Hate

LA vs Hate provides three components: a marketing campaign to unite LA county against hate, and the criticality of reporting acts of hate; a network of agencies to provide assistance and prevention strategies to prevent hate; and free assistance to anyone reporting hate to 211 or www.LAvsHate.org, where anyone can get help with hate experienced in LA County 24 hours a day/7 days a week, in English, Spanish, Asian languages, and many others. Assistance includes connection with local and culturally attuned organizations that can support them in the aftermath of hate, including counseling and legal services. More information on LA vs Hate can be obtained at www.LAvsHate.org
