

Dave Putz Rejoins Rittenhouse as Health Care Account Manager

January 31, 2022 – Rittenhouse is pleased to announce Dave Putz as the new Health Care Account Manager. Dave’s years of experience in the industry will be an invaluable asset to the Rittenhouse Team, and provide enhanced support to our institutional health care customers.

Based in Jacksonville, Florida, Dave brings nearly 20 years of library sales experience in both the hospital and academic sector. His career started at Rittenhouse in 2003 as a Sales Representative and since has held roles at eBrary, ProQuest and EBSCO. Rittenhouse is excited to have Dave back on the team, and is confident that his wealth of experience and work ethic will elevate our services and partnership with customers in the health care space.

“It’s a transformative time for the access to scientific, technical, and medical (STM) content with the intersection of medical information and technology providing an unparalleled opportunity to change how our customers access information” said Nicole Gallo, Executive Vice President, Rittenhouse. “Having Dave as part of our sales effort will ensure we meet the customers’ needs and bring value to STM content purchase experience.”

Dave will be a central part of the Rittenhouse Sales Team and inform the company’s mission to be All You Need To Know for life and health sciences. Customer service is at the forefront of everything we do and Dave will ensure our customers have a single source for effortlessly finding trusted, vetted, and quality life and health sciences content.
