We're Here to Support You

During this period when we are all challenged with supporting new methods of teaching, learning, and living, Rittenhouse is here to assist you and your patrons with these needs. We are following the guidance and best practices from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other global health agencies.

We continue to offer many inventory solutions that can be easily integrated into your work-flow adjustments. Delayed shipping to your bookstore and the Rittenhouse Direct Ship Program can support your patrons as they transition to distance learning.

- All of our inventory solutions are available to be viewed at Rittenhouse.com. If you need your login just let us know marketing@rittenhouse.com
- The Rittenhouse Direct Ship Program enables your bookstore to order books and have them shipped directly to your customer. Log into your account, and view the details under Inventory Solutions.
- We are open and shipping, and you can elect a future shipping date for your orders.
- Receive an instant quote for future shipments— use Text Express or let us know and we can assist you in this process marketing@rittenhouse.com

The safety and well-being of our team, our customers, and your patrons are our top priorities and we will continue to monitor this situation closely.
