Smithfield Foods and Bashas' Family of Stores Join Forces to Donate More Than 40,000 Pounds of Protein to St. Mary's Food Bank

PHOENIX, Feb. 28, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- With nearly a third of Arizona residents living in poverty and facing food insecurity, Smithfield Foods, Inc. is partnering with Bashas' Family of Stores to donate more than 40,000 pounds of protein to St. Mary's Food Bank. The tractor-trailer load of nutritious, center-of-the-plate protein is enough to feed 160,000 Arizonians in need as Smithfield continues their 2020 Helping Hungry Homes® tour.

"At Smithfield Foods, we recognize protein is often a staple missing from the tables of those struggling with food insecurity and we are committed to helping our neighbors in need by providing access to this high-quality product in the communities we serve," said Jonathan Toms, associate manager of charitable initiatives for Smithfield Foods. "We are proud to partner with organizations such as St. Mary's Food Bank and Bashas' Family of Stores to work to fight hunger right here in Arizona."

Helping Hungry Homes® is Smithfield's signature hunger-relief initiative focused on alleviating hunger and helping Americans become more food secure. Since the creation of the program, Smithfield has donated over 145 million servings of nutritious, high-quality protein to food banks, school nutrition programs, disaster relief efforts and community outreach programs across all 50 states.

"Poverty is a serious issue in Arizona, affecting more than 2 million people who lack consistent access to adequate food," said Jerry Brown, Director of Media Relations for St. Mary's Food Bank. "Smithfield's donation will provide necessary relief for families in our community. We are thrilled to be able to offer protein to our clients, which is essential to fueling their nutrition throughout the day."

Smithfield and Bashas' presented the donation to St. Mary's Food Bank during an event in Phoenix this morning. Over the course of the year, Smithfield Foods will provide dozens of additional donations to communities across the country.

"Addressing food insecurity across our state is a critical need. In partnership with Smithfield, we are facing this head on and ensuring every family in Arizona has access to a healthy, well-balanced and delicious meal," said Ashley Shick, Director of Communications and Public Affairs of Bashas' Family of Stores. "We are especially grateful to work alongside likeminded organizations to work toward our common goal of ending hunger."
