Student enrollment as of September 1, 2023 *

Spring TEA value has been pre-filled. Update as needed.

Please do not enter "1" as a placeholder. You can round or leave TEA value if you are not sure at this time.

Employee count as of September 1, 2023 *

Spring TEA value has been pre-filled. Update as needed.

Please do not include temporary or student employees. Only include substitutes if they are regular employees (e.g., floating subs).

Our data shows that your district either has no high school or has a high school without UIL classification. Please confirm if that is correct. *

- Yes, that's correct (we are a K-6/K-8 district, or have a high school that does not compete in UIL events)
- No, that's incorrect (we have a high school that is UIL classified)

What is the UIL classification of your high school campus?*

Payment method for extra duties

Districts use a variety of methods to pay for additional duties and time spent on them.

Select all methods used in your district. *

- Flat stipend (e.g., $2,000)
- Extra days (e.g., 20 days, or stipend plus 5 days)

How are extra days paid?*

Check more than one if it varies by activity.

- Employee's current daily rate
- State minimum schedule daily rate
- Flat daily rate

What is the flat daily rate?*

Does the district use a method not listed to pay for extra duties?

- Yes
- No

Please describe what method is used other than flat stipend and/or extra days.

Payment practices for athletics

Districts use different practices for assigning and paying coaching duties. Select the most common for each group.

- By Sport: separate stipend paid for each sport coached (e.g., a coach receives $3,000 for soccer head coach plus $1,500 for assistant track coach)
- By Coach: single stipend to compensate for multiple coaching assignments (e.g., a coach receives $3,000 for coaching three middle school sports)
