

School District and Campus Websites: Required and Optional Internet Postings

Published online in TASB School Law eSource

NOTE: The information in this resource is based on the law that is in effect at the time of publication and does not reflect any changes that may come from the 89th Legislative Session. This resource will be updated as soon as possible after the conclusion of the legislative session. Use caution if using this resource after June 2, 2025.

Texas and federal law require school districts that maintain a website to publish numerous items. The list of required postings continues to expand with each legislative session. In addition, Texas law gives school districts the option to post certain items. A full list of both required and optional postings is maintained at TASB Policy CQA(LEGAL) and is set out in the attached chart below.

This list only addresses postings on websites and does not include other required methods or publications of notice. See TASB Legal Services' Required Newspaper Publication of Notices by School Districts.

This document is provided for educational purposes and contains information to facilitate a general understanding of the law. References to judicial or other official proceedings are intended to be a fair and impartial account of public records, which may contain allegations that are not true. This publication is not an exhaustive treatment of the law, nor is it intended to substitute for the advice of an attorney.
