The International Study Centre

The Kingston University London International Study Centre provides a range of degree preparation programmes for international students. These include academic modules, English language training and study skills, so you are ready to join your chosen degree programme on completion.

Supporting you personally

Here at the International Study Centre, we offer a number of services to help you settle in and adjust to life as a student. These include:

- A personal tutor, who will provide academic guidance and advice during your time at university.
- The Student Life Centre at the Penrhyn Road campus, where you can get advice on everything from accommodation and student funds to disability support.
- StudySpace, which is an online learning tool that gives you access to teaching resources, timetables, blogs and discussion boards.

Academic and study support

Once you complete a degree preparation programme and achieve the required grades, you can enter your chosen degree programme at the University.

Additionally, you will benefit from early exposure to university-style teaching. Our programmes will introduce you to the type of tuition and learning formats that you will experience when you progress onto your degree. This includes a tailor-made curriculum delivered through a mixture of tutorials, seminar-style classes and large group lectures.

Professional support

The International Study Centre offers a variety of activities designed to give you a head start to becoming a highly skilled, self-aware and confident graduate.

Throughout your time studying with us, you will develop key employability skills – such as teamwork, problem solving and communication – as well as assessing your individual strengths and areas for improvement. With help from your tutors, you will create a personal development plan to help set goals for your future success.

For those with business ideas, Kingston also offers support through entrepreneur societies and career guidance from the University's Careers and Employability department.
