Why Dublin?

It's one of Europe's oldest cities, populated by a young, vibrant population. The rich history and culture make it an inspiring place to live and learn.

Dublin is home to international companies like Google, Pfizer, Facebook and IBM, meaning you're never too far from career opportunities.

International graduates can benefit from post-study work visas, making Dublin a fantastic place to kick-start your career – Ireland is the only native English speaking country in the Eurozone to offer this.

"I had a dream that I really wanted to live and study abroad, so I followed my dream. I had a specific goal that I really wanted to study somewhere abroad and in an English-speaking country. I researched different universities in Ireland and UCD was one of the top."

Why UCD?

Ranked in the top 200 universities in the world (QS World University Rankings 2022).

Ranked number 1 in Ireland and top 100 in world for employability (QS Graduate Employability Rankings 2022).

Established in 1854 – over 160 years of tradition.

Situated on 350 acres of parkland, making UCD one of the largest urban campuses in Europe.

One of Dublin's largest universities, with more than 30,000 students.

Over 8,500 international students from more than 140 different countries.

A safe and caring environment for you to excel in your studies.

UCD's park campus offers everything you need from accommodation and student societies to cutting-edge facilities and a career development centre.

The International Foundation Year

The International Foundation Year, taught at the Dublin International Study Centre, gives you all the support and guidance you need to make a confident start to your degree at University College Dublin.

From comprehensive English language preparation to academic skills training, our courses help you adapt to life and study at a research-focused university.

Whether you choose the Business, Economics and Finance, Engineering and Sciences, or the Social Sciences, Arts and Humanities route, after the pathway programme you'll be in a much better position to reach your full potential in your chosen undergraduate degree.

Studied International Foundation Year in Business, Economics and Social Sciences
Progressed to BSc (Hons) Social Science

"The foundation that we study at the ISC is really helpful. The presentations skills we learn help to ease us into university life. If I had gone to UCD directly, I don't think I would have been eased into university life, as the ISC helped with that."
