

Terms and conditions – Data Sharing

By submitting an application to Study Group you are agreeing for your application data to be shared with Cardiff University.

It is the responsibility of applicants to provide full and accurate information in an application and to notify the University of any changes or corrections to the original application.

The University reserves the right to exclude an applicant who is considered on justifiable grounds to be unsuitable for a place on a particular programme according to individual circumstances, as part of their onward Cardiff University acceptance.

The University reserves the right to reject or withdraw any onwards CU offer based on an applicant's behaviour during any visit to Cardiff University (such as attending an interview, audition/workshop, offer holder visit day or a general visit to the University) if an applicant has displayed behaviour/s that are in contravention of the University's Equality and Diversity or Dignity at Work and Study policies (which all students and staff of the University are required to adhere to).

It is a condition of acceptance of an Onward offer to study at Cardiff University that you understand that in order to process your application it is necessary for personal information, obtained in connection with our admissions process to be used and, where necessary, shared with UCAS or other relevant bodies. This is for the purpose of verifying your identity, qualifications and references so that your onward offer to CU to enter into a contract with the University can be suitable assessed and considered. Where legitimate and necessary, the University may also share your data with UK agencies with duties relating to the prevention and detection of crime, apprehension and prosecution of offenders, collection of tax or duty or safeguarding national security.

Further information about how your personal data will be used, how long we keep it for and how we protect it and the right to be forgotten whilst you are an applicant is available on our website at <https://www.cardiff.ac.uk/public-information/policies-and-procedures/data-protection/student-data-protection-notice>
