WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

If you are career-focused and community-minded, the University of Hartford is a great choice where you will learn in a supportive community on a beautiful campus in the USA. Experience new opportunities and make friends for life as you earn a degree at a unique university.

Bring Your Passion

Student success at the University of Hartford (UHart) is driven by the strong relationships built between students and teachers. Here, you will learn from inspiring faculty members with years of experience in their fields. An 8:1 student-to-faculty ratio provides an engaging and productive learning environment.

Make Your Mark

UHart's central values of inclusivity and diversity make it a rewarding and engaging place to study, with a friendly and engaged student body. There is so much to get involved with on campus, with more than 100 student organizations and clubs, and a huge range of facilities.

Find Your Path

UHart is dedicated to producing employable graduates. In addition to having a central location between New York City and Boston, Hartford is the insurance capital of the world. It's home to Fortune 500 companies like Aetna[®], Eversource Energy, Hartford Financial Services, and nearby United Technologies Corp. More than two-thirds of our undergraduate students complete an internship during their time here.

LIFE AT UHART

The University of Hartford welcomes you to an inclusive community where you can explore and are encouraged to pursue your dreams.

Student Life

Students are encouraged to get involved and meet each other through extracurricular activities. UHart's reputation for excellent student engagement starts with its 100+ student organizations, including academic clubs, multicultural groups, and philanthropic societies.

Welcome to UHart Hub

Getting involved on campus is your gateway to success! Our online portal, UHart Hub, will help you get involved and have a complete UHart experience. We are ready to help you find featured events, organizations, and involvement opportunities.

Your New Home

All full-time undergraduate students must live in on-campus housing and participate in a meal plan during their first two years at UHart. International Pathway Program (IPP) students live on campus in Neighborhood Housing alongside other international and domestic students. Our residence halls are located within easy walking distance of all UHart facilities and services, and have access to a study lounge and laundry facilities.

Graduate IPP students can live in newly renovated graduate apartments with single bedrooms, bathrooms and shared living spaces. Apartments come mostly furnished and include all utilities, WiFi, heat and air conditioning. Graduate IPP students are not required to live on campus.

Student Support

The Center for Student Success helps students transition into their first year with academic and personal guidance, including one-on-one tutoring and support in study skills, mental health and wellness, career exploration and internships, financial aid and scholarships.

ADMISSIONS OPTIONS

Whether you are admitted directly to UHart or enroll in our International Pathway Program, we will welcome, support, and help you make the most of your university life.

We understand that studying in a foreign country can be challenging. From day one at UHart, we are here for you. We offer you two different routes to begin your UHart education: direct admission or enrollment in the IPP. Either option will provide you with the confidence and skills you need to succeed.

Program Offerings

- International Year and Direct Admission

Graduate

- Master's International Year and Direct Admission

International Pathway Program

At the IPP, you will take academic and English language courses while having the benefit of the full UHart campus experience and the care of a dedicated team to help you adapt and thrive as an international student. When you complete your IPP studies, you'll continue your chosen UHart degree courses, confident and fully prepared for the challenges of a UHart education.

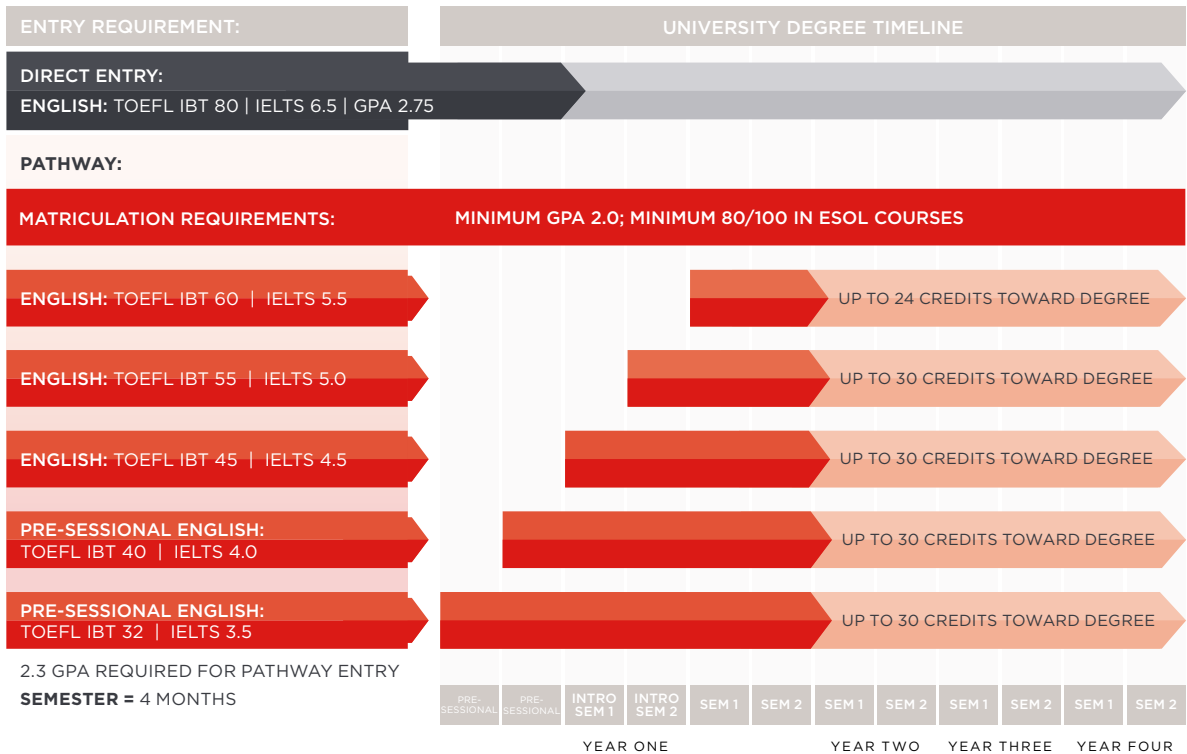

My English is not really good, but I really want to learn here and don't want to waste a lot of time, so I chose the IPP. It's really helped me a lot to connect the language and the course. And in this environment, I think my English levels improved very quick.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

The University of Hartford offers more than 100 degree programs across seven schools and colleges. With a wide variety of programs to choose from, undergraduate and graduate students can explore their interests with the guidance of expert faculty and professionals and prepare for their future careers.

Highlighted Degrees

BSBA in Accounting

With the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) in Accounting degree, students learn the basics of accounting theory and practice while exploring how accounting connects to other business fields like financial analysis, operations management, and information technology.

Required courses include:

- Financial Reporting Theory I-III
- Cost Management
- Auditing Concepts and Problem
- Internship in Accounting

Students graduate with the knowledge needed for their first accounting jobs and for the Certified Public Accountant and Certified Management Accountant examinations.

MBA in Business Administration

The Master in Business Administration (MBA) prepares students to work in a variety of successful careers within large corporations, family-owned businesses, and not-for-profit organizations. The MBA program at the University of Hartford consists of 12 courses (36 hours). Students take 9 required courses in business disciplines and 3 courses in their chosen concentration.

There are 9 concentrations to choose from:

- Accounting
- Business Analytics
- Finance
- Healthcare Management
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Project Management
- Supply Chain Management

The MBA is ranked #3 for largest MBA program in Connecticut (Hartford Business Journal).

MS in Business Analytics*

The Master of Science (MS) in Business Analytics is a STEM-designated degree designed to give students a strong understanding of the fundamentals of analytics so they can advance their careers in the growing “big data” business culture. It is a 30-credit hour program consisting of 7 core courses, 2 electives, and an application-based, broadly integrated, capstone course.

Sample courses include:

- Strategic Business Analytics
- Data Visualization
- Predictive Modeling

The University of Hartford's Barney School of Business was named a Best Business School by The Princeton Review (2022).

BS in Architectural Design + Technology*

BS in Architectural Design & Technology BS program prepares students for a variety of careers in architecture and construction.

Sample courses include:

- Building Systems for Architectural Design
- Architectural Computer Modeling and Rendering
- Design of Steel Structures for Architectural Design
- Construction Management

Students have recently interned at NASA, Raytheon Technologies, and Turner. Top employers include Crosskey Architects, FIP Construction, Tecton Architects, and Walt Disney Imagineering.

MS in Computer Science*

The MS in Computer Science, a STEM-designated degree, will teach you to understand and solve complex computing-related issues, and to develop, implement, and evaluate computer-based solutions. This degree gives you advanced knowledge and technical skills in computers and information technology.

Explore areas like machine learning, data mining, cryptography, and the internet of things.

*STEM-Designated Degree: Completing one of these programs may qualify you to extend your post-graduation stay in the USA through optional practical training (OPT). You should speak with your UHart advisor to confirm that your program is a STEM-designated degree.

“Thanks to professors, thanks to the IPP program and my classmates, the alumni at UHart, they were so great. They supported me a lot and that's why I could get familiar with the new subject of MBA and I can go to the library. We also have a Tutoring Center. They helped me to study and improve my MBA background.

BM & MM in Instrumental Performance

The Bachelor of Music (BM) in Instrumental Performance degree is a comprehensive program designed for the student whose goal is to be a professional performer. Students can choose to focus on performance concentrations in guitar, instrumental, or piano. Students will learn contract negotiation, making a recording, stage presentation, preparation for orchestra auditions, and repertoire selection.

Courses include:

- Communicating with an Audience
- Building a Music Career
- Orchestral Repertoire Class

Graduate students participate in many performance, educational, and professional development opportunities. An emphasis in Suzuki Pedagogy is available, led by internationally acclaimed Suzuki Association of the Americas (SAA) teacher trainers. Instrumental Performance graduate students may concentrate in any of the following instruments: Bassoon, Cello, Clarinet, Double Bass, Euphonium, Flute, Guitar, Oboe, Harp, Percussion, Piano, Saxophone, Trombone, Tuba, Viola, Violin.

Courses include:

- Analysis for Performance
- Major Instrument Instruction
- Recital

Instrumental and Vocal Performance students enrolled in the English Language Institute (ELI) or International Pathway Program (IPP) may start taking music lessons at the beginning of their ELI or IPP coursework.

BM & MM in Vocal Performance

The BM in Vocal Performance prepares students for careers as professional performers or vocal teachers or to pursue graduate school. All vocal students study privately with a member of The Hartt School's eminent vocal faculty, working on technique and repertoire, and participate in weekly coaching, seminars, and voice lessons. Students perform in the Undergraduate Recital Series, fully staged operas, and choir concerts.

Courses include:

- Vocal Study
(32 credits of applied voice lessons)
- Opera Performance
- Ear Training

The Vocal Performance graduate program is designed for mature students with advanced vocal training and academic study in preparation for careers as professional performers and teachers. The degree includes solo opportunities in choral and orchestral concerts.

Courses include:

- Private Voice Instruction
- Vocal Coaching
- Vocal Literature

The Graduate Vocal Seminar prepares pre-professional students to audition for young artist programs, operas, and oratorio concerts, as well as performances in two graduate recitals per year.

For the whole school we have lots of practice rooms. And every semester you also can plan for your own concert recital or chamber group, if you want to perform. And always available. You just need to apply before. And I think the whole Music School, they always support, encourage and teach student to perform their instruments.
