Sea Change

CRAIG FOSTER & ROSS FRYLINCK

Including the story from the Netflix documentary 'My Octopus Teacher' which has won 'Best Documentary' at the 74th British Academy Film Awards (BAFTA) and an Oscar for 'Best Feature Documentary' at the 93rd Academy Awards

Sea Change takes you on an evocative journey into the secret life of an almost unknown ecosystem; the beautiful kelp forest of Southern Africa. Craig and Ross spent eight years exploring this sea forest together, diving almost every day. This is the story of what they found in the wild, and how it has transformed their lives.

Selling points:

- The most extensive collection of sea forest photography ever published, curated from a library of over 200 000 images
- New species discovered, and many amazing animal behaviours photographed for the first time, including those featured in the BBC's Blue Planet II
- A gripping, personal story about fathers and sons, and the healing power of wilderness
- Part of a greater project which includes the feature documentary film, 'My Octopus Teacher'
