Martin's Creek

Natural Habitat Regeneration

- Remove pockets of camphor laurel and introduce native species in stages. Revegetate with native riverine species from this locality
- Pathway along creek corridor
 In future renovation of Buderim Central, consider more opening and access to the landscape and creek at rear - also enhance public space at front and link to Village Green

Buderim Entry Vista

- Important entry vista to town centre Tree lined garden "village" character with historic school and oval to be
- retained and enhanced Dip in road emphasises the long view

Camphor Laurel Avenue Multi use for school Frames vista along street "Gateway", "frame" and Creek at Lindsay Road Revegetate in stages to naturentry to centre al riverine forest Roundabout Part of proposed traffic system facili-tating smooth flow · Import vista from centre Introduction to creek walk Distinctive marker of Buderim entry Character/theme similar for the three roundabouts in Buderim with trees, low planting and low stone walls Hoop Pine Avenue Landmark "pink blade Scenic Lookout View to coast and plair Pottery/ clay museum display original clay quarry site

Burnett Street

Streetscape Identity - West side

- trunk with epiphytes
- Stone wall surround with special planting
- Footpath pavement special pavers

Sculpture/Land Art Park

- Special construction utilising slope for play theme
- · Carpark for users of Escarpment Pathway
- Scenic lookout

Escarpment Pathway

 Pedestrian and bicycle path linking hall to town centre and proposed commercial

Hall & Crafts Community Cultural

- Crafts and community hall use to con-
- Carpark and garden setting enhanced
 Potential for music and performance
- Additional cultural activities meetings and special functions

· Part of proposed traffic system facilitating a Distinctive marker of Buderim entry · Character/theme similar for the three roundabouts in Buderim with trees, low planting and

 Service lane facilities access to and from service station and future redevelopment

> Lookout, visitor information and Play Area Play items reviewed for shade, safety and Road verge enhanced with street trees and reinforced grass parking areas appropriateness

 Escarpment Pathway
 Pedestrian path - linking shopping centres, & Pioneer Cottage to Lions park offering scenic lookouts and urban landscape

Pathway established through agreements between property owners and Council.

low stone walls

Burnett Street New Forecourt Civic Space - East Side A village shopping and meeting hub

- Poincianas along streetFootpath merged with forecourts to form attractive civic space
- · Seats shaded by trellis and trees
- Cafes extended and closer to street
 Buderim gardens character with vines
- and epiphytes in structure
- Widened footpath paving and add seats
 Encourage professional offices upstairs more interesting shopping at street level

Middy's Shopping Court

- Enhanced paving, trees and pedestrian links
- Civic space merging to footpath to present uni fied space

- Escarpment & Dense Tree Frame
 Part of Buderim's identity and landscape struc-
- Escarpment Pathway offers environmental experience and scenic outlooks
- Pathway link from cultural node through natural landscapes to the urban area, reflecting Buderim's rich heritage and landscape charac-

