

The hype's been real

ArtsCoast Newsletter - September 2022

How many of the fifty-two events have you made it to this Horizon Festival? A slightly biased highlight for the team has been last Sunday afternoons double header featuring The Sinkers and Looks Like a Tourist at Cotton Tree. We want to say huge thanks and congrats to the Horizon team alongside all the artists and workers who made it happen.

Project 24 had it's first artist showing featuring works in development by Sharka Bosokova and Looks Like a Tourist. And today we welcome Libby Derham and Orlando Mee as our September resident artists. RADF application deadline is slowly approaching again and we've got a few opportunities to meet with our RADF officer coming for any hands on help needed with your applications.

Project 24 : Orlando Mee & Libby Derham

2nd Space, Nambour : 2022/23

It's the first of the month which means our September artists in residence are bumping in. This month we have Orlando Mee from South Australia with support by Country Arts South Australia ( CASA ). Orlando is a multimedia artist working on Narungga land in Wallaroo. He makes video art, projection art, web-based works, VR and interactive experiences. In the Makers Space we have Libby Derham. Watercolour runs in Libby's veins, going back four generations in her family. Currently working in Cymatics with Joseph Burgess, Libby is exploring the relationship between watercolour and the visualisation of birdsong through liquid. We recommend blocking out Wednesday 28 September to join us for the showing. RSVP here.

The Keeper Project - Coolum

Field Theory X Red Chair Events X ArtsCoast X ArtsQLD

After eleven Keepers in the role its time to wind down this unique public art project. For now anyway. For those who missed, The Keeper Project is a unique live public art project that occurred in Coolum and the community were invited to experience it. Each Keepers project took a completely different approach to exploring Coolum. From the sounds and textures to the amazing people that frequent the beaches and cafes. From sunrises to missing historical artefacts and everything in between. If you want to relive the project head to the Keeper website and sift through the daily logs of each Keeper. Or head to the Keeper playlist and watch each of Keeper videos from their time in the roles. Until next time, maybe someplace new.
