

MASTER LAW

ALTERATIONS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS 2024-2025

Below you can see whether there will be any alterations to the English specialisations of the master's programme in Law in academic year 2024-2025 and whether transitional provisions apply.

❖ EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

Compulsory courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Legal Methodology	From period 2 to period 1	---

Integration courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
International Law on Climate Change and Sustainability	New integration course	---
Irregular Migration	From integration course tot restricted elective	The course may be used as an integration course until August 31, 2025
Philosophy of International Law and Migration	New integration course	---

Restricted electives

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
The Politics of International Law	From restricted elective to free elective	The course may be used as a restricted elective until August 31, 2025

❖ INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION AND REFUGEE LAW

Compulsory courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Legal Methodology	From period 2 to period 1	---

❖ INTERNATIONAL TECHNOLOGY LAW

Compulsory courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Legal Methodology	From period 2 to period 1	---

Integration courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
E-commerce law	New integration course, period 3	---
European Consumer Law in a Digital Society	From integration course tot free elective	Students who started the specialisation International Technology Law before 2024/2025 may still use it as an integration course

❖ FREE ELECTIVES

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Law & technology: Computational Law & Evolutionary Design	New name: Foundations: Law & Technology & Economics	---
Litigation before IC	New course	---