

FSS JOHANNES VAN DER ZOUWEN MASTER THESIS AWARD 2020

Bram Verhulst (Public Administration)

Title thesis: Educational desire - A public administrative-philosophical reflection on education

Lizanne van der Aa (Policy, communication and organization)

Title thesis: Humans, algorithms and reducing food waste at Dutch supermarkets - A study of decision-making processes in the automatic replenishment system of Albert Heijn

Josephine van der Erve (Communication Sciences)

Title thesis: Covid-19 and mobile news users - A pilot study into mobile news behavior and the underlying motivations

Layla Attwood Durrani (Culture, Organization and Management)

Title thesis: Unplanned and Planted: multispecies entanglements during the COVID-19 Pandemic in San Francisco

Cille Kaiser (Political Science) (winner)

Title thesis: Rethinking the Polycentricity-Equity Paradox. On the North-South Imbalanced in Transnational Climate Change Governance

Martina Manna (Social and Cultural Anthropology)

Title thesis: Dwelling the house. Materialization of social hierarchies in Nepal

Fabian Holle (Sociology)

Title thesis: Queer creations between a rock and a hard place. Art practicing LGBTQ+ forced migrants unsettling Dutch hegemonies