Course Evaluation during the last class

It is recommended to give students the opportunity to complete the course evaluation during a class. This can be easily achieved by using in Evalytics the option 'Combined: Live in class with follow-up by invitation'. It provides both direct access to the evaluation via a QR code during class, and an email invitation for students who were absent, ensuring that everyone gets the chance to complete the evaluation. Below are the steps to set this up quickly.

During the editing period of the evaluation, a course coordinator can select `Combined: Live in Class with Follow-up by Invitation` option in Evalytics. When students scan a QR code or use an alphanumeric code during the last class, they will be prompted to log in to Evalytics. The system will then track which students have not yet completed the evaluation and automatically send them invitations and reminders via email.

Here's how you do it:

 In section 6, `What is the schedule of the evaluation?`, you can move the start date of the evaluation forward. Please note: to do this, you must first adjust the end date of the supplementation period, for example, by shortening the number of days.

6 What is the schedule of the evaluation?
Once
O Periodically An evaluation that must be carried out	several times with the same respondents
Continuously An evaluation that is open for a longer	period of time and where you want to add new respondents in the meantime

 Next, go to section 5, 'How would you like to make this evaluation available?', and select the option Combined (Live in the class with follow-up by invitation). Please also select the teachers who should receive the QR code.

In section 6, 'What is the schedule of the evaluation?', you can now set the evaluation periods for `Live in the class` and `By Invitation` methods.

Please note: As soon as you select the combined method, the feedback period and results date are automatically unchecked. You can then re-check them and enter the correct dates.
