

Below you can find a list of examples of the most common non-Dutch high school diplomas accepted as equivalent to the Dutch pre-university level VWO for the BSc Psychology. In the table you can find what VU Amsterdam accepts as equivalent to the ≥ 7.5 in the Dutch grading system.

The current list is applicable only for admissions for 2025-2026 (applications from 1 October 2024 onwards). Please note that our diploma list may be updated for future intakes. No rights can be derived from this list and the final decision on admission to the programme will be determined by the BSc Psychology Selection Board and the International Office.

Is your diploma not included? Then check our diploma list to find out if your diploma is evaluated as being equivalent to the VWO level. You will then need to submit an official application via Studielink and provide all required documentation in the application section of the VU Dashboard.
